

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE

1.	THE CALL TO ADVENTURE	1
1.1	Research Focus and Questions	2
1.2	Definition of Terms in Context of the Study	3
1.3	Theoretical Framework	6
1.3.1	Frame	8
	1.3.1.1 The Frame of Perceived Reality	8
	1.3.1.2 The Dramatic Frame	10
1.3.2	Snap-shot	12
1.4	Methodology	13
1.4.1	Theoretical Literature Research	13
1.4.2	Practical Research in an Educational Drama Workshop Series	14
1.5	The Importance of the Study for South Africa	15
1.6	Why Drama?	18
1.7	Schematic Layout of the Argument	22

PART ONE: THEORETICAL FOUNDATION

2.	THE JOURNEY BEGINS	25
2.1	Augusto Boal	27
2.1.1	Introduction	27
2.1.2	The Relationship Between Art and Nature: Belief Systems	27
2.1.3	Relationship of 'Self' to Dramatic Character and Context: Playing Oneself	29
2.1.4	Key Concepts and Methodology: The Spect-Actor	30
	2.1.4.1 Theatre of the Oppressed	30
	2.1.4.2 The Rainbow of Desire	33
2.1.5	Critical Analysis	34

2.2	Robert Landy	41
2.2.1	Introduction	41
2.2.2	Relationship Between Art and Nature: Dramatic Paradox	41
2.2.3	Relationship of 'Self' to Dramatic Character and Context: Role-Play	44
2.2.4	Key Concepts and Methodology: Role and Distancing	46
	2.2.4.1 Role	46
	2.2.4.2 Distancing	50
2.2.5	Critical Analysis	52
3.	INTO A WORLD OF WONDER	56
3.1	Gary Izzo	59
3.1.1	Introduction	59
3.1.2	The Relationship Between Art and Nature: Dramatic Play	60
3.1.3	Context: The Setting or Temenos	63
3.1.4	Character: A Model	69
3.1.5	Critical Analysis	77
3.2	Christopher Vogler	80
3.2.1	Introduction	80
3.2.2	The Relationship between Art and Nature: Mythic Structure	82
3.2.3	Character: The Hero	88
3.2.4	Context: The Story or Journey	90
3.2.5	Critical Analysis	96
4.	APPROACHING THE INMOST CAVE	103
4.1	Introduction	104
4.2	The Relationship between Art and Nature: Mutual Mirroring	106
4.3	Learning Objectives: The Play for the Teacher	112
4.3.1	Character: The Personal Attributes of the Adolescent	113
4.3.2	Context: The Setting and Story of a South African Adolescent	114

4.4	Strategies and Activities The Play for the Learner	117
4.4.1	Character: Engagement with a Fictional Role	122
4.4.2	Context: Engagement with a Fictional Setting and Story	128
	4.4.2.1 The Setting	129
	4.4.2.2 The Story	130
4.5	Critical Analysis	138

PART TWO: PRACTICAL APPLICATION

5.	THE ORDEAL	149
5.1	Introduction	150
5.2	Research Method and Materials	152
5.3	Planning	157
5.4	Chronological account	157
5.4.1	SESSION 1 – August 16, 2003	157
5.4.2	SESSION 2 – August 23, 2003	159
5.4.3	SESSION 3 – August 30, 2003	162
5.4.4	SESSION 4 –September 13, 2003	165
5.4.5	SESSION 5 - September 20, 2003	167
5.4.6	SESSION 6 - October 11, 2003	170
5.4.7	SESSION 7 – October 26, 2003	173
5.4.8	SESSION 8 – November 1, 2003	176
5.4.9	SESSION 9 - November 8, 2003	180
5.4.10	SESSION 10 – November 10, 2003	187
6.	THE ROAD BACK	193
6.1	Introduction	194
6.2	Research method and materials	196
6.3	Analytical Account	198
6.3.1	The Ordinary World of Participants	198

6.3.2	The Participant's Special World and the Character's Ordinary One	203
6.3.2.1	Setting	204
6.3.2.2	Characters	206
6.3.3	The Character's Special World: Maverick 436	211
6.3.3.1	The Stages of the Hero's Journey	212
6.3.3.2	Belief and Engagement	214
6.3.4	The Ordeal: Identification of Participant with Character	218
6.3.4.1	Character Development	219
6.3.4.2	Story Development	221
6.3.5	Return with the Elixir: Character and Participant	227
6.3.5.1	Exhibited Personal Values	228
6.3.5.2	Professed Communal Values	230
6.4	Suggested Changes	235
7.	THE RESURRECTION	244
7.1	Longitudinal SESSION 1 – August 28, 2004	248
7.2	Longitudinal SESSION 2 – Sep 11, 2004	258
8.	RETURN WITH THE ELIXIR	269

POSTSCRIPT

RESOURCES

APPENDIX 1: Additional Material

APPENDIX 2: Questionnaires

APPENDIX 3: Reflections Longitudinal Study Session 1

APPENDIX 4: Interviews with Y2Kids Directors